Overview

What is Bess & how does it work in ASEAN?

Typical BESS components include battery modules, a storage enclosure with thermal management, a power conversion system (PCS), a battery management system (BMS) and an energy management system (EMS). A few other ASEAN countries are also starting to wake up to the advantages of BESS in their respective energy sectors. But, it's a slow start.

What is a Bess battery & how does it work?

Since a BESS is a backup power source, like any energy source that feeds the grid, it has to be managed and controlled. The lead-acid battery market in Southeast Asia is rapidly evolving, driven by the increasing demand for reliable energy storage solutions across various industries.

Where is Bess located?

It is located in Bataan Province, some 140 km north of Manila, the country's capital. The Philippines is also taking the initiative to implement BESS for off-grid solar applications. This is expected, since ASEAN comprises many island countries with underdeveloped off-grid communities.

Where is Bess located in the Philippines?

But, it's a slow start. The Philippines started its first BESS in April with a 1,000-MW capacity system. It is located in Bataan Province, some 140 km north of Manila, the country's capital. The Philippines is also taking the initiative to implement BESS for off-grid solar applications.
