Overview

Will Hamad bin Khalifa be South Sudan's largest oil-backed loan?

The panel of experts said in a report to the U.N. Security Council that loan documents it has seen indicate the deal with the company, Hamad Bin Khalifa Department of Projects, would be South Sudan's largest-ever oil-backed loan.

How much fuel does South Sudan produce a day?

South Sudan is under pressure from the United States and other nations to more quickly implement the 2018 peace deal that ended the civil war and prepare for elections. According to the U.S. Energy Information Administration's latest update, South Sudan produced an average of about 149,000 barrels of liquid fuels per day in 2023.

Could a loan monopolize South Sudan's revenue?

Servicing the loan could monopolize South Sudan's revenue for many years, dependent on oil prices. Hamad Bin Khalifa Department of Projects, registered in Dubai, has no listed phone number, and its website is inactive.
