How much solar energy is there?

Enough sunlight hits the Earth's surface in 1 1/2 hours to power the entire world's electricity consumption for a year, which is approximately 173,000 terawatts.

Why is solar energy important?

It is a clean and abundant energy source that holds tremendous potential to address the world's growing energy needs while mitigating environmental impacts. The process of capturing and converting solar energy into usable forms is achieved through various technologies, primarily solar photovoltaic (PV) systems and solar thermal technologies.

How is solar energy converted into usable forms?

The process of capturing and converting solar energy into usable forms is achieved through various technologies, primarily solar photovoltaic (PV) systems and solar thermal technologies. Solar photovoltaic (PV) systems use solar panels to directly convert sunlight into electricity.

How does concentrating solar power work?

Concentrating solar power uses mirrors to reflect and concentrate sunlight onto receivers that collect solar energy and convert it to heat. This thermal energy can then be used to produce electricity via a steam turbine or heat engine that drives a generator.
