What are the biggest solar projects in Italy?

The biggest solar projects in Italy include the Troia Solar farm, which is operational from 2020 and has a capacity of 103 MW. European Energy built this plant in Apulia, close to Foggia.

Who owns the Solare Roma power plant?

The Solare Roma Power Plant, located in Anguillara (a Rome province), has 13 MW of solar power energy available for the current owner, Allianz Renewable Energy Partners IV Ltd. SunPower built and designed the project and continues to provide maintenance and operations services.

What makes Italy a great country to invest in solar power?

Italy became the third European country to experience a solar power development boom around the turn of the Millennium. This was largely due to the government's support for renewable power through the "Conto Energia" program, which was launched in 2005.

How does solar power generation work in Italy?

In Italy, solar power plants have a capacity of up to 6 MW and are all connected to the national electricity grid. The largest one is located in Sabaudia. The output is sold to the Italian national grid, and the Italian government offers incentives in the form of a feed-in fixed-price tariff for 20 years.

What is the largest PV plant in Italy?

The largest PV plant in Italy, in terms of capacity, is Sabaudia, with a 6 MW capacity. It is located in Friuli-Venezia Giulia and was finished in 2010. The output from the plant is sold to the Italian national grid, and a feed-in fixed-price tariff is available for 20 years.

How much solar power does Abruzzo produce a year?

In 2021, the solar installation at the Ortona, Abruzzo factory produced 11.6 GW of solar power, which is equivalent to the electricity consumption of around 3,500 houses per year. This installation is impressive as it produces more electricity than most European solar power plants.
