Does anyone have experience buying solar panels in Poland?

Yeah you're right, too much, I think I'll start with 4 kwh system of 340w x 12 panels. I looked at my consumption, currently using about 5.25 kwh a day (about 2000 kwh a year). But solar panels are cheap, and natural gas is dirty, so I would prefer to buy more panels and use electric heating to complement wood stove/propane heating.
