Why are solar panels only for Gestalt Consciousness?!

Why are solar panels on space stations only for the gestalt?! I'm sure it has something to do with the lore of the hive mind and networking and some such, but considering that the ISS has solar panels and humanity isn't a hive mind, that seems like a shit deal.. I didn't realize how much I relied on the panels until I tried to play a Necroid species yesterday and couldn't keep my

non-gestalt Solar Panels :: Stellaris General Discussions

I can't seem to find a non-gestalt (only machine intelligence) that can build solar panels on space stations (seems to be replaced with trade hubs for everyone else). Stellaris v2.2.4 DLC Content: Anniversary & Horizon Expansion: Apocolypse & Utopia Spiecies: Humanoid & Plantoid Story: Distant, Leviathans, Synthetic Any suggestions?

Renewable Energy , St. Lucia Electricity Services Limited

You were using solar power! "Solar" is the Latin word for "sun" - and it's a powerful source of energy. The sun provides energy in two forms - light and heat. The sun can be used to heat water and air in our homes and businesses (If you've seen a house with big shiny panels on the roof, that family is using solar power.).

Should normal empires also use solar panels? : r/Stellaris

Gestalt consciousness have solar panels because they don't have trade and don't use trade hubs. But normal empires should be able to use solar panels too. Archived post. Hydroponic farms, and solar panels : r/Stellaris Farms are fine, if a bit not worth the cost of building. Return on investment is going to take a while. However, if you are forced to play tall and with habitats, they become invaluable. Solar panels are generally useless, you NEVER build them, but you can consider keeping those that the ...

Solar panel

Solar panels must be wired into the same network as a solar power converter in order to produce usable electricity. To maximize efficiency, solar panel arrays should incorporate a solar panel light sensor, the output of which is used by a turntable and a solar panel support in order to keep the solar panel oriented towards the sun.

Why don't normal empire get bio reactor and solar panels?

Getting mining bay, hydroponics bay, and 6 solar panels can be pretty nice without having to increase the overhead via empire sprawl. Also in case you aren't aware the 2nd or third research galactic resolution will double the effectiveness of the solar panels. You get 12 energy baseline I believe once that has passed.

Solar Panel Network and Energy Credits : r/Stellaris

Solar panels are generally not worth the cost on a starbase. If your economy is great in every other way then monthly trades of alloy's can ride you over on energy credits until you can build them up. Generally the best sources of energy credits are ...

r/Stellaris on Reddit: Solar Panel Networks are op! +500 extra ...

So every star fortress can have 6x Solar Panel network which will give you let's say 10EC/month per panel. A star fortress costs 5EC upkeep - so we have a total of +55EC per star fortress. Every star fortress over your limit increases upkeep by 0.25.

My new favourite thing: Solar panels

After a few techs each one gives about 10 energy. They compete with anchorages, but they can really power up your economy. Taking the ascension perk for +5 starbases just for more solar panels can give you +60 / +150 / +300 energy (for different starbase levels and assuming you're getting +energy techs).

r/Stellaris on Reddit: Solar Panel Networks are op!

So the diagram above shows you that with 20 star fortresses over your limit (all filled with solar panels) you will generate an extra 500EC - 1000EC depending on bonuses. This concludes the best strategy: Always stay over limit.
